

Alex Santana, M.S.

Alex serves the South Florida Regional Planning Council as Administrative Coordinator. In this role Alex assists the Executive Director and Director of Administration in all aspects of the Council's day-to-day operations.

Some of his responsibilities include providing logistical support for Council meetings and conferences, drafting correspondence and reports, and overseeing the Council's website and social media presence. He also assists with legislative research and coordinated communications with elected officials, governmental agencies, and community stakeholders in the tri-county area.

Alex possesses firsthand knowledge of government at the local, state, and federal level. His work experience includes the position of Government Affairs Coordinator at one of Tallahassee's premier political lobbying firms. Prior to that role he worked for the Florida Supreme Court as an Administrative Assistant. While studying as an undergraduate student in Washington, D.C. Alex interned for several members of the U.S. House of Representatives and U.S. Senate, at the U.S. Department of Justice, and at the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

Alex holds a Bachelor of Arts in politics and history from The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. and a Master of Science in political science from Florida State University. He was born and raised in Miami, Florida.