

Paul Imbrone

Board Chairman, Thriving Mind South Florida;
RentConnect Program Director

Paul Imbrone is a 40-year veteran of retail operations having held senior executive positions with one of the industry's largest retail leaders, Macys, Inc. where he was VP, Government and Public Affairs for an eight-state region encompassing Florida, Texas, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, New Mexico, Nevada, and Puerto Rico. Paul directed key areas including government and legislative affairs, risk management, public relations, specialized licensed business development and property lessee relationships.

During his retail tenure, Imbrone went beyond his career positions to lead a variety of community initiatives, retail associations and charitable pursuits. A master at bringing people to consensus to participate and become involved in collaborative, political and legislative matters, Imbrone's expertise and board participation led him to become a key community advocate and contributor with groups as diverse as the United Way, the Miami Dade County Homeless Trust, and Thriving Mind |South Florida Behavioral Health Network as well as leading many years of public service on behalf of Macys biggest initiatives.

Following several years as Chairman of the Board, Florida Retail Federation and holding numerous board positions in a variety of state retail associations, Paul retired in 2017 but his continued desire to contribute, led him to continue to support community initiatives important to him:

Paul serves in a consultant position with Miami-Dade County Homeless Trust leading the RentConnect, Landlord Recruitment initiative and housing/property acquisitions. Paul is board chairman, Thriving Mind | South Florida. Thriving Mind | South Florida (TM), promotes access to effective, accountable and compassionate care for people with mental illnesses and substance use disorders. TM funds and oversees a safety net of services for uninsured individuals in Miami-Dade and Monroe counties with support from the State of Florida, Department of Children and Families, and other public and private sources.
