

HAILEY LAZZARONI HUNT, MS

South Florida Local Emergency Planning Committee (LEPC) Coordinator
Regional Planner

Hailey Lazzaroni Hunt serves as South Florida Local Emergency Planning Committee (LEPC) Coordinator and Regional Planner with the South Florida Regional Planning Council (SFRPC). Since joining the Council in 2022, Hailey has supported regional resilience and planning initiatives focused on climate adaptation, hazard mitigation, mobility, and community resilience, and in 2025 transitioned into the role of South Florida LEPC Coordinator, supporting hazardous materials emergency preparedness and stakeholder coordination across Broward, Miami-Dade, and Monroe Counties.

As South Florida LEPC Coordinator, Hailey facilitates collaboration among local, state, federal, and private-sector stakeholders to support hazardous materials emergency preparedness and response efforts throughout the region. She coordinates LEPC meetings, training opportunities, exercises, and outreach initiatives while supporting compliance with the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act (EPCRA). Her work helps strengthen regional coordination and preparedness across Broward, Miami-Dade, and Monroe Counties.

As a Regional Planner, Hailey supports projects that advance resilience, sustainability, and long-range planning efforts throughout South Florida. Her work includes research, stakeholder engagement, data analysis, and GIS support to help communities prepare for environmental, infrastructure, and climate-related challenges.

Prior to joining the Council, Hailey worked at a university-based environmental research center, helping to engage communities and raise awareness of local resilience efforts related to flooding, extreme heat, and other climate-related hazards.

A lifelong Floridian, Hailey earned her Bachelor of Arts in Sustainability and the Environment from Florida International University and holds a Master of Science in Environmental Studies. Her academic and professional background has fostered a strong commitment to advancing resilience, preparedness, and sustainable communities throughout South Florida.
