

GLENN A. WILTSHIRE

Deputy Director, Port Everglades

Glenn A. Wiltshire, a 30-year U.S. Coast Guard veteran, is the Deputy Port Director for Port Everglades, which is ranked among the nation's leading container ports and a world leader in the cruise industry.

Mr. Wiltshire has successfully implemented several innovative programs to support increasing cargo, cruise and petroleum volumes. He worked closely with U.S. Customs and Border Protection and other state and federal agencies to introduce new technology such as facial recognition and automated passport control. He also negotiated multiple long-term commercial agreements and managed capital improvements to port facilities. He serves as a member of the South Florida District Export Council for the U.S. Department of Commerce and is president of the Florida Ocean Alliance.

Mr. Wiltshire was the U.S. Coast Guard Captain of the Port of New York/New Jersey. Mr. Wiltshire's other previous Coast Guard service also includes serving as Chief of Staff for the U.S. Coast Guard Oceania District in Honolulu and as Executive Assistant to the Assistant Commandant for Marine Safety, Security and Environmental Protection in Washington, D.C.

He joined Port Everglades in August 2006 as the Deputy Port Director, and served as Acting Chief Executive/Port Director from March 2019 through June 2020 and from January 2024 through July 2024.

Mr. Wiltshire graduated from the United States Coast Guard Academy and received a master's degree in public administration from the John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University.
